

“Those who stand for nothing, fall for anything”

Every one of us should follow some basic guiding principles. If we are not governed by values & principles we will do whatever comes our way. There will not be any inner conscience and direction and will get carried away by any thought & idea, be it right or wrong.

TFW