

“It is better to light a candle than to curse the darkness”

Most of us focus on the problem rather than the solution. Losers are those who always focus on problems. Winners are those who become part of solutions. We must attempt to solve the problem through discussions, consensus and hard work rather than curse the problem.