

“When the student is ready, the teacher will appear ”

If we have a right question, we can definitely find an answer. If we recognize a problem, there will be a solution. If we think there is still lot of scope for learning, we get opportunities to learn. The only requirement is, recognition of gaps or opportunities for learning and an open mind to learn.