

“Humility is the foundation of all Virtues”

Humility comes from knowing the fact that there is very little we know and have achieved and there is a lot more to be done and learnt from others. We stop learning the moment we get the arrogance that we are superior to everybody else and we know it all. There is so much more to learn and achieve. This humble attitude will lay the foundation for imbibing all other virtues.

Thought for the Week