

Are we too busy or do we have time for improvements?

Successful people/organizations are those who set aside exclusive time for thinking and implementing improvement ideas that enable stability of processes and predictability of outcomes.

Time invested in Quadrant II activities gives more time back to you to work on important things.

Thought for the week