

Traditional Management

Specify solutions to a problem and leave implementation to the team members

End result:

Not enabling effective people development and no creativity of people.

Lean Management

Specify HOW to develop solutions using PDCA and leave creating and implementing solutions to team members.

End result:

Enabling effective people development and creativity.